

The 'Diamond/Compak range of Coffee Grinders

Compak Technology / Diamond input

Compak's designs are based on cutting edge technology and the most advanced systems in cold grinding, applying processes that are faster, more silent and more powerful. With Diamond Coffee Equipment, Compak have designed a range of coffee grinders best suited to the needs of the Australian market.

Global quality standards and build quality

All of the Compak grinders have been tested individually and subjected to electrical, granulometric and dispensing tests to guarantee perfect operation. Compak have a strict quality control process, which to them being the first company in this sector to obtain ISO9002 quality standard.

Maximum functionality, minimum maintenance

Compak grinders have advanced design solutions which ensure easy, precise and intensive use, making cleaning and maintenance tasks extremely simple to carry out.

FEATURES

- Each grinder is assembled by hand, part by part
- Made of the highest quality components
- Ability to personalise the grinders
- Simple to use
- Stylish European outer body design
- 12 Months Warranty

Designed to please, designed to last

Injected aluminium, plastic materials that are suitable for use in food processing, UNI7B46 steel milling cutters, heat protectors.... Based on an attractive design that never goes out of fashion, the exceptional resistance and durability of the whole wide range of Compak grinders is founded on the high quality of the materials used in the components.

BENEFITS

- Over 50 years experience in manufacture and design
- An extensive range to meet any commercial grinding requirement
- User friendly design
- Aesthetically pleasing to the guest